Q. No. 4 (Page 1)

Problems to National Cohesion

When the centripetal forces i.e. joining forces dominate, the country is said to be integrated and united. Centrifugal forces i.e. the separating forces dominate to achieve national disintegration. These forces on differences of language, race, culture are natural and need to be cut.

Provincialism: Provincialism and provincialism are due to group of hypocrite who find it pride to be called Sindhi, Punjabi, Balochi or Pakhtoon and have narrow ethnic cohesion instead of national cohesion.

Differences in Languages: Differences in languages and laxity of different racial groups leads to national disintegration.

Poverty: Poverty, unemployment, unequal distribution of wealth and differences in living conditions of different classes of society is the leading cause of national disintegration.

Dictatorship: Dictatorship, political instability, long periods of undemocratic rule lead the people to develop a sense of condemnation and hatred for the ruling class and sense of deprivation intensifies.

Bureaucracy: Autocratic rule of bureaucracy is problem to integration. As, bureaucrats usually belong to a specific class and area and work for betterment of only that class.

Illiteracy: High rate of illiteracy, especially in the rural areas causes differences in people.

War Culture: Pakistan has a war culture; political unrest and terrorism which is the major cause of poverty and disintegration.

Negative Role of Media: Media plays a role in the creation of

Q. No. 4 (Page 2) between different groups of people. (صفحہ 2) موالیہ 4

Solution of Problems

Remedial measures can be taken for promotion of integration.

(i) EDUCATION AND OPINION FORMING:

• Promotion of education: Pakistan is an ideological country. That people of sub-continent got this country, so that they can live according to Quran. This was the reason, they forgot all their differences. Now, Pakistanis need to revive their brotherhood which is only possible through attainment of knowledge and Islamic education. Hazrat Muhammad (S.A.W) said:

"I'm living among you two things; Holy Quran and Sunnah."

• Promotion of Urdu: To overcome the linguistic differences, use of Urdu as national as well as official language is required. As, it is a lingua franca and cultural heritage. Quaid-e-Azam said:

"But let me make it very clear to you, that the national language of Pakistan is going to be Urdu and no other language."

• Positive Role of Media: The electronic and well as print media should perform their role in national cohesion and integration.

(ii) ADMINISTRATIVE ROLE:

• Patriotic Outlook of Bureaucrates: Under the federal civil service, the officers from one province are transferred to another province. If these officers work with positive outlook, there is no way left for disintegration. Quaid-e-Azam said:

"You belong to the servants of people. You are not their masters."

• Restructuring of Provinces: The provinces should be restructured on the basis of administrative units instead of ethnic groups.

(iii) CONSTITUTIONAL MEASURES:

• Bicameral legislature: Under the 1973 constitution, the parliament was divided into two houses: The lower house or National Assembly and Upper house or Senate to represent provinces in equal number. So, the large provinces cannot hide or effect the opinion of small provinces and all provinces were equal.

• Division of powers: The division of powers within the federation and provinces was an important step. Only a country can develop, national integration, if adequate powers are given to the provinces.

• Democracy: Democracy creates a feeling of responsibility and adequacy among people. Democratic rule instead of dictatorship needs to be enhanced.

"Democracy is government for people, from people and by the people."

(iv) ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT: Development of rural and deprived areas and scheme of economic bootstrap is necessary.

(v) Elimination of War: Peace can be only achieved in a country through war elimination. Cohesion requires creating a sense of peace among themselves like China and Japan.
